

AXMIN ANNOUNCES CHANGE OF AUDITOR

Vancouver, British Columbia -- (Marketwire – February 19, 2014) - AXMIN Inc. (TSX VENTURE: AXM) ("AXMIN" or the "Company") announces that Ernst & Young LLP, Chartered Accountants (the "Former Auditor"), has resigned as the Company's auditor at the request of the Company, effective February 14, 2014 and the Company has appointed MNP LLP, Chartered Accountants (the "Successor Auditor"), as its auditor, effective February 14, 2014.

There were no reservations in the Former Auditor's reports for the two most recently-completed fiscal years or for any period subsequent to the most recently-completed period for which an audit report was issued and preceding the date of the Former Auditor's resignation. To the Company's knowledge there was no "reportable event" (as defined in section 4.11 of National Instrument ("NI") 51-102 Continuous Disclosure Obligations) between the Company and the Former Auditor. The resignation of the Former Auditor and the appointment of the Successor Auditor have been approved by the Company's audit committee and its board of directors. The Company's audit committee and its board of directors have reviewed the letter from the Former Auditor and the Successor Auditor respectively, and approved the Notice of Change of Auditor. All procedures have been properly followed under NI 51-102 regarding the change of auditor and, as required, the Notice of Change of Auditor, together with the required letters from the Former Auditor and the Successor Auditor, will be filed on SEDAR.

AXMIN's Chairman and CEO, Lucy Yan, comments: "I would like to express our sincere gratitude to Ernst & Young LLP on behalf of the board of directors and the management."
